In the background of each student's question area there is a hologram with the student number. Therefore, students who attempt to cheat and take pictures of the questions during the exam can be identified.

Your time counter starts as soon as the exam starts.
You can see;

- how many questions you have
- which of these you answered,
- which ones you left blank,
- which answers to your questions could not be saved on the exam screen.

Exams on ALMS

The screenshot displays the ALMS exam interface. A modal dialog box is centered on the screen with the title "Are you sure to finish the exam?". The dialog contains the following text: "You did not answer all questions.", "Number of questions you answered: 9", "Number of questions left blank: 1", "Click the Yes button to finish the exam, No button to stay on the page. Click here.", "If you finish the exam, you will use your right to take the exam.", and "If you do not have another entry right, you will not be able to take the exam again." At the bottom of the dialog are "No" and "Yes" buttons. In the background, the exam interface is visible, showing a question list on the left with options a) through e), a "Previous", "10/10", and "Next" navigation bar, and a "List of Answers" section with a grid of question numbers 1 through 10. Below the grid, there are status indicators: "x Empty", "x Active", "x Answer saved", and "x Answer not saved".
